Rev Katharine Bland

Unfortunately, Katharine and her husband Paul have both contracted Covid-19, and are suffering with the symptoms. Katharine says “This is truly dreadful, please, please, take care of yourselves and don’t take any risks at all”

She will be taking some time off to rest. If you need her during this time, please contact your pastoral visitor, one of the Stewards, or me (Amy). We send them both our thoughts and prayers, and to their son Christopher, who remains at home to look after them.

Message from Rev Katharine Bland (written earlier)

Dear Friends – Happy New Year!

My guess is that we will not be able to forget 2020 – It will probably lodge in our memory for all the wrong reasons. This time last year who could have imagined what was ahead of us? As I think back, I can recall that many were saying how thankful they were that 2019 was over. There was great hope that 2020 was going to be a better year. Most of us probably agree that 2020 has not been a better year!

Will 2021 bring us what we hope for? Will the pandemic end? Will we be able to worship without restrictions? These are questions we can’t answer right now. What we can do is love. Perhaps, as we grow better at loving God and loving others, these and other struggles will give way to peace and hope for all.

Regardless of the earthly results, I know it pleases God when we live out the desire of His heart – the desire that we show compassion, mercy, understanding, patience, humility and tolerance – the desire that we love.

I guess most of us are glad to see the back of 2020! Yet as we walk into an unknown future, we walk with a known God who has gone ahead of us and walks with us, no matter what the circumstances of our lives. However difficult this year has been for you, we have a hope and a joy, a peace and a strength, that nothing else in this world can bring. I don’t know what plans you have for this year, but I imagine we are all hoping and praying that some of what is in our diaries actually takes place! I am certainly looking forward to meeting you all – in person! But for now, I am here for you by phone, email or carrier pigeon!

God Bless and stay safe.

Love Katharine

“God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them.” 1 John 4:16

Church Council

Due to Rev Katharine’s illness, we have taken the decision to postpone the Church Council meeting due on 12th Jan until a later date. The stewards will still be having their regular monthly meeting on Wed 6th Jan.

Dot Pendleton Funeral – 2pm Friday 8th Jan

The Cortège will turn left out of Cranwell Ave, along Wellfield Rd, then left into Lodge Drive to Culcheth Hall Drive, if you wish to pay your respects as they leave (remembering to keep a very good distance from everyone else – note the Tier 4 restrictions, and as Katharine says, don't take any risks).

If you would like to watch the live webcast of the service, starting at 2pm on Fri 8th, go to <https://www.obitus.com/> and enter the username: Nako6740 and password: 067913
It will also be available for 28 days afterwards (after a delay of up to 3 days to get it uploaded).

The funeral notice can be found at this link, along with a link to donate to the Alzheimer's Society in her memory, should you wish to.
<https://www.dignityfunerals.co.uk/funeral-notice/06-12-2020-dorothy-pendleton/>

I will circulate the order of service separately.

Post Church Virtual Coffee

We had a technical hitch last week that delayed the start of the coffee meeting – don't worry if you couldn't get in! Should be back to normal this week.

If you would like to join in for a virtual post-church Zoom coffee at 11.30pm each Sunday, just for half an hour, the link is below. We have had some lovely chats in our breakout groups in these last few weeks, do join us. Note that this is now a repeating meeting – it will be the same link each week.

Christmas Stars over Bethlehem

I hope you have been able to see the lovely window display? It's been so nice to see the twinkly lights of the tree outside and the stars lit up over Advent. Thanks to everyone who contributed.
