Julia, the Church cleaner, will be taking one week of her holidays next week 25-29 July. This means that any church group needs to make sure that they make an extra effort to leave everything clean and tidy before they leave. We could do with someone to spruce up the church after Sunday's Service and before Pilates on Tuesday morning.

MEN'S BREAKFAST

The next Men's Breakfast meeting will be on Saturday, 6 August when we shall be having Paul Hassall to speak to us about local history in the East Lancashire Road area and the Astley Green Colliery Mining Museum.

We will meet as usual from 9.30am for bacon butties, toast etc. With Paul speaking from 10.00 am. This looks like being a very interesting talk and it will be great to have a "full house" so please spread the word amongst all your friends and acquaintances reminding them that there is no charge to attend.

At this meeting we want to agree that in future the Men's Breakfast will meet on the first Saturday of the month instead of the last Saturday as we did previously. [Alan]

Church Weekend

If anyone is interested in a church weekend away some time later in the year please let me know and I will try to arrange something. Any ideas would be gratefully received. I am sure some of our friends from other churches would be interested in joining us but we need to arrange dates etc. I have a brochure from Beechwood Court in Conway which looks good and isn't too far away, together with an offer of a very nice Spanish retreat house with a pool. Any other suggestions?
